Comprehensive training in public management and policy analysis.

Two-year program with strong emphasis in experiential learning.

Nationally-accredited and highly ranked.

Flexible degree lets you transition across public, nonprofit and private sectors.

Strong alumni and professional network.

Applications accepted on a rolling basis. Priority deadline for funding consideration is January 15th.

GRE is not required.

Bachelor of Arts in Public Administration & Policy

- Provides necessary tools for success in the challenging and evolving landscape of public service.
- Interdisciplinary curriculum melds the study of public administration, public policy and communication.
- Strong emphasis on communication skills through unique collaboration with MU Department of Communication.

Both programs can be completed fully online, on-campus or with a mix of online and on-campus classes.

Master of Public Affairs

- Comprehensive training in public management and policy analysis.
- Two-year program with strong emphasis in experiential learning.
- Nationally-accredited and highly ranked.
- Flexible degree lets you transition across public, nonprofit and private sectors.
- Strong alumni and professional network.
- Applications accepted on a rolling basis. Priority deadline for funding consideration is January 15th.
- GRE is not required.
Take your CAREER to the Next LEVEL

Seth Bauman
Assistant Deputy Director
Family Support Division, Missouri Dept of Social Services

“There’s no doubt my Truman School education helped unlock some amazing opportunities for me to gain invaluable experience in my pursuit to help create positive change.”

Seth Bauman earned an MPA in 2016.

Caroline Kelly
Education Team Coordinator
University of Missouri - Kansas City
School of Medicine, St. Joseph Campus

“The Truman School was a perfect fit for me!...I enhanced my leadership, collaboration, and problem-solving abilities, while also gaining knowledge on how to effectively work in and with the public sector.”

Caroline Kelley earned an MPA in 2021.

Career Outcomes

Kathleen Miller
Assistant Teaching Professor
Academic Programs Director

“Our competency-based curriculum provides a solid, broadly applicable skillset for careers in government agencies, nonprofits, consulting firms, think tanks, and the private sector.”

Our graduates land jobs in a multitude of practice areas. A few examples:

- City Management
- Public or Nonprofit Management
- Healthcare Policy/Management
- Emergency Management
- Research
- Policy Analysis
- Program Evaluation
- Elections Administration
- Public Affairs & Engagement
- Project Management
- Program Coordination
- Government Relations